Drama News -

Great results for 2010 Year 12 students, learning opportunities for students both in class and beyond the classroom, news from the Singapore Drama Tour company and current Year 12’s preparing for their first show - The Visit!
Firstly, congratulations to our 2010 Yr 12 Drama graduates who received exceptional results overall, with our two merit students, Molly McCormack and Gemma Borrello, successfully applying for Arts Law at Adelaide University. Aidan Tothill and Elise Champion from the 2010 Drama class join the large contingent of our graduates at ACAArs in the various theatre tech courses. It was a pleasure to see Aidan back in the Forge doing spot jobs for Windmill Theatre company joining Aaron Herzceg (2009 graduate) whom Windmill has employed for the production for audio and general tech wizardry.

Past students Eliza Oliver (2009) and Bec Mayo (2010) successfully applied and auditioned for a place at Flinders University’s Drama Centre and Chris Petrides returned from touring Europe with the Australian Dance Theatre as their lighting operator. We wish them well as we do to all our graduates who have taken a variety of pathways from petroleum engineering to trades apprenticeships but also take with them a taste of working within challenging and rewarding Drama courses and productions.

2011 has started as always with a rush of learning opportunities for our students both in class and beyond the classroom. Currently, in conjunction with Come Out and The Migration Museum, Marryatville High School Drama Tech students from years 10 and 11 are assisting with the Museum’s play Destitute! Local actor Emily Branford was commissioned to write and star in the production. Our students have designed, constructed and are operating the technical elements of the show. This includes building items of set, designing and rigging the lighting, sound and visual systems and the in-performance operation of all these elements.

Destitute! is on at the Migration Museum (behind the State Library) last week of March and first week of April as part of the 2011 Come Out Festival programme.

In the past few weeks, another team of Yr 8 and 10 Drama students have gained first hand film experience working on DECS television ad campaign filmed by the ABC. The Yr 9 and 10 Drama students attended in the Forge, Windmill’s much anticipated dress rehearsal of Escape from Peligro Island. The added benefit of having a theatre such as the Forge on site is professional companies, such as Windmill and Patch designing, constructing and then rehearsing their new theatrical marvels providing students a real insight into Arts practitioners at work.

Our Singapore Drama Tour company have begun work on their touring programme, Between the Cracks, whereby they rehearse a scripted production, incorporating their counterparts from Anderson Secondary School Singapore and integrating the parts in a final round of rehearsals in late June in Singapore. The trip lasts for 10 days and includes an intensive tour and cultural experience of Singapore leading into Home-stay where they become immersed for four days with Singaporean home and school life including making final preparations for their collaborative production.
Senior classes are busily rehearsing and preparing for their forthcoming major and minor productions in Term 2.

Mr Brant Eustice’s class are taking on, for their practical exam, Durrenmatt’s The Visit, (Term 2 Week 6) a darkly probing moral enquiry into the rationalisation of greed. David McVicar’s class are making final preparations for their new SACE dramatic investigations into the style and impact of a significant play. The latter partially replaces the written exam of the old SACE and students must demonstrate through written and practical means a close understanding of a selected text.

The two Yr 11 classes have begun their preparations for their productions of Footfall and The Original Child (Term 2 Week 4) with the Yr 10 and 11 Theatre Tech class busily designing and constructing the sets and main props for all the shows.
Visit The Visit!

Mr Eustice’s Year 12 Drama class will present Friedrich Durrenmatt’s 20th Century classic, The Visit, in the Forge June 8-10.

Durrenmatt’s brutally funny tragic comedy explores the notion that everyone’s conscience has a price. Expect spectacular sets, garish costumes and boldly hilarious characters.

This is the first of the two publicly examined productions our Year 12 SACE Drama students will present this year. Stay tuned for the next show in Term 3!

Year 12 Drama Teacher

Year 9’s presenting their dramatic investigation into Melodrama

Junior classes Year 8 mime and movement workshop

Year 11 presenting their work on Expressionism
Jazz Cabaret

April fools’ day was when we held the Jazz Cabaret. A fantastic evening was had by all.

A total of nine ensembles participated with a great variety of jazz music from smooth instrumental ballads to funky vocal charts. The announcers for the evening were our Music Captains: Emily Ravenscroft and Angus Mason.

Jam Packed opened the evening with a set of lively numbers. Max Grynchuck impressed the audience with his confident playing and was well supported by the ensemble who were tight and stylistic.

Big Band III was directed by Jasmin Bowden. This was the first concert with this ensemble for many of these students. A solid performance demonstrated a good foundation for the future of the jazz program.

The David Goodwin Trio performed a number of original pieces which have been recorded and available to purchase on CD.

Big Band II was directed by Tom Pulford who wowed the audience with his dance steps. The ensemble performed the repertoire they will be presenting at Generations in Jazz.

This was followed by a combo lead by trumpeter Hayden King and then another by percussionist Angus Mason. It was wonderful to hear some original music of the students mixed in with the jazz standards. Jazzit performed both arrangements and compositions of leader David Goodwin. A highlight was a funk piece I Wish by Stevie Wonder with added vocal trio of Madeline Stewart, Sidney Millar and Lili Coats.

A well rounded evening’s entertainment was completed by Big Band I directed by Rob Chenoweth. They performed the pieces they have been preparing for Generation in Jazz and two more pieces: I’ve Got the World on a String with vocalist Emily Hatwell, and then Too Late by Carol King with Pops Vocal.

I would like to thank all who supported the event. Firstly, those who attended and then all of the helpers. I would like to especially thank those who donated items for the evening’s raffle, food and beverages. A special thanks goes to those who donated their time and energy setting up the venue, transporting gear, administration and ticketing. Thanks and congratulations to the directors of the ensembles, and the music staff for their continued support.

‘Get the Drift’

Monday March 7th. 2011
As part of ‘National Youth Week’, a group of 19 Year 9 Health Education students, accompanied by Jenni-Lee Iversen and Matthew Bond, attended the event – “Get The Drift”.

Presented by The Cities of Burnside, and in conjunction with National Youth Week 2011, this successful day was held at The Adelaide Festival Centre. Our students were involved in a series of workshops – the central focus being Youth and Resilience. Below is a summary, as written by the participating students, of the attended workshops.

Refugees and Cultural Diversity (Families SA Refugee Services): ‘We attended the Refugee and Cultural Diversity session. The experience and knowledge we gained throughout the talk influenced our understanding of refugees and migrants. We discussed their stories and the challenges they endured whilst migrating to Australia. Though it was a difficult transition, the outcome was a positive experience, allowing them the opportunity to establish the foundations for a better life.’

(Kelly, Rhianna, Jessica, Eloise)

Get Your Facts Straight – Drugs and Alcohol: ‘During the session we filled out a questionnaire about our knowledge concerning drugs and alcohol. We learnt a lot about everything to do with alcohol and other drugs, with the main focus being on alcohol. We learnt about the different amounts of alcohol, how to avoid hangovers(!) but most importantly how to avoid drinking and drug taking. We learnt about the risks associated with these products, especially what they do to the body. Overall, we learnt that avoidance is the best thing to do. Moderation is the second best thing to do.’

(Kaleb, Keith, Jonathon, Will, Thomas, Matthew, Danny)

Looking After Your Digital Footprint: ‘For this workshop we had two presenters who talked to us about cyber predators and the Carly Ryan Foundation. They showed us a 60 minutes programme about each of these things. It was aimed at teaching us about keeping our information private on the internet and knowing the sins of danger. Overall it was useful, we learnt a lot and now we are more aware of what can happen if we are not careful.’

(Olivia, Nhi, Chloe, Maddi, Candy)

Who Has Your Back?: ‘We were involved in several activities to do with peer pressure. The first one we had to listen to and then make a decision about what we would do – walk away, give in, change others opinion or stay with the group and keep our opinion to ourselves. Once decided, we lined up in given places and then discussed our decisions. We had to see whether we were influenced by our peer group. We did two other activities, each helping us to see how strong we were in terms of being influenced by others. We learnt the importance of staying true to ourselves.’

(Olivia, Marissa, Brittany)

The whole group then took part in the Information Expo where they were exposed to the exhibitions of 25 youth services available to them should particular needs arise in their lives.
The Year 8’s have had a number of activities this term.

Science sparks an interest? Ignite your passion at the National Youth Science Forum.

Now in Canberra and Perth, the National Youth Science forum is the only program in Australia that offers students studying Yr 11 the chance to test drive a wide range of universities and careers in Science. Held in January of each year, applications for this program need to be in to the NYSF in May 2011.

Sound interesting? If so, visit www.nysf.edu.au to find out more about this amazing opportunity and the application details.

Applications for the 2012 Forum will open on Friday 1st April 2011.

For successful candidates The Burnside Rotary Club will offset some the costs.

If you have an interest in Science this is a great opportunity to attend one of three sessions in Canberra or Perth and define your future career choices. For further information see Mr. Pontikinas. NYSF offers an outstanding opportunity for sponsors to connect with Australia’s best and brightest science students.

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL SPACE SCHOOL

Victorian Space Science EducationCentre
(Stratmore Secondary School)

Congratulations to Oliver Grenfell (E07) who has been selected as a participant in the Australian National Space School “Mission to Mars” during October 5-8, 2011.

Marryatville students raise over $300 by eating pancakes.

The drama unfolded at lunchtime on a rainy Tuesday early in March when 400 hot pancakes were delivered to the school to be sold for gold coin donations. This money went to Uniting Care Adelaide East to help families in our local community who may need emergency care with food, housing or counselling.

Pancake Day happens every year at the beginning of the Easter Season. The pancakes were made by members of our local churches and served by students from the Christian Students Group that meets on Monday at lunchtime in N3. Everyone had a lot of fun and we are all pleased to have done something together to help people in our community.

Thank you to the students who helped and to staff and students for their donations and healthy appetites. Special thanks to Mr Graham and Mr Burrow for their support.

Cybersafety from the Wellbeing Team

The Australian Government has recently introduced an online resource called the Cybersafety Help Button. It is an online resource designed to keep children and families safe online. It provides easy access to cybersafety help and information.

One of the problems with cybersafety help and resources is the large amount of information available on the net. The Cybersafety Help Button brings a large amount of information, resources and direct help together in one place and presents this in a way that is easy to navigate and find the help you need. Once the button is installed on a family computer online help is available 24 hours a day 7 days a week.

The Cybersafety Help Button is available free of charge at www.dbcde.gov.au/helpbutton. It is compatible with both Windows and Mac computers. Once downloaded, it sits unobtrusively on the computer desktop or task bar. When the button is clicked, users are taken directly to a website where they can talk, report or learn about cybersafety issues.

The talk function allows the user to talk directly to a counsellor about cyberbullying or anything that has upset them online.

The report function provides direct links to the reporting pages of social networking sites, The Australian Communications and Media Authority, Scamwatch and the Police.

The learn function provides a wide range of links to information on how to stay safe on line and detailed information on cybersecurity, viruses and malware.

It is the best and simplest resource that I have found and the school highly recommends this resource to students and families and think that it would make a valuable addition to all computers in your household.
