FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Parents, Caregivers, Staff and Students

This is the last newsletter for this term. Please take the time to read it as it contains important information for members of the school community, as well as acknowledging and celebrating the outstanding achievements of our students. The first newsletter for Term 2 will be emailed home on Thursday, 15th May 2014.

Council of International Schools (CIS) Accreditation – Team Visit
23rd to 28th March 2014

In previous Newsletters I have provided information about our accreditation and the Team Visit. Preparation for the recent Team Visit required a huge investment of time and energy, particularly over the last 2½ years. The Team Visit went very well and we look forward to the Report next term.

I would like to acknowledge the outstanding work of Kerry Friedrichs and Earle Kilvert in leading and managing the process with significant support from Julie Ferguson over an extended period of time.

I would also like to acknowledge the leadership planning and work undertaken by members of the Steering Committee, Kerry Friedrichs, Earle Kilvert, Julie Ferguson, Chris Thorburn, Kathryn Bereny, Bryce Woodley, Steve Heard, Jasmin Feneley and Alana Rologas over a number of years.

Sports Day
The Marryatville High School Sports Day was held at Santos Stadium on Wednesday 19th March. I would like to thank Mr Byles, Ms Vivian, Mr Caire, Physical Education staff and House Leaders for their work in organising a very successful event and all staff for their support on the day.

Grandparents’ Day
I was delighted to see so many grandparents of our Year 8 students visit the school on Wednesday 26th March. It is a powerful statement about the value placed on education by our school community.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Patrick Gregory who has been chosen to represent South Australia in the National Youth Archery Championships (held in Adelaide this year) from Monday 14th to Saturday 19th April.
Congratulations to David McVicar who received the 2014 Ministers of Arts and Educations Award for Excellence in Arts Teaching and Leadership at secondary school level.

He has taken extended leave this semester but will use his grant to develop his skills as a drama educator through seeking inspiration and new approaches to actor training and contemporary design techniques. David will travel to the UK to work with The Bristol Old Vic Acting School and the Royal Shakespeare Company. His entrepreneurial style of management has attracted many successful projects to the school over his time as Coordinator and Forge Manager. Earle Kilvert, who also received the award in 2012, has taken on his management duties in his absence.

This semester for the reviewfolios our senior Drama classes have seen some wonderful and diverse productions at the Festival including the Australian premiere of the Canadian production Needles and Opium, a fascinating theatrical journey into the minds of Miles Davies and Jean Cocteau that challenged and enthralled the students. They also attended the contemporised version of the classical tale of the fall of Troy, An Iliad, co-written by director Lisa Peterson and actor Denis O’Hare, a compelling mix of traditional and modern storytelling using the empty space and the audience’s imagination to construct the epic tale. Finally Windmill Theatre’s School Dance proved a very popular and enjoyable look at growing up and self-acceptance. The students use the productions to write reviews; the Year 12’s two 1000 word reviews while the Year 11’s write one review up to 750 words. Lively discussion came out of the theatre visits, particularly about the design and use of the stage and as each show stood in complete contrast to the other there was much to stimulate ideas and help develop new approaches to solving theatrical problems.

AN EXAMPLE OF A YEAR 8 DRAMA UNIT

Theatre Making is a type of drama practice that allows students to explore and create ideas, making connections, trying out non-linear narratives, using images, developing their outside eye and their ability to critique and make sense of what they are making and seeing.

It is a type of ‘writing’, coming up with phrases which are then sequenced and layered to make some sort of accumulative sense. Our ‘Lucky Dip’ Unit uses rules in order to create ‘obstructions’ to extend the creativity of the students. Their performance work needs to include: a diary, a key, a photo frame and a toy car. Students are set tasks that they respond to individually and in groups. Some tasks the Year 8’s have been asked to respond to so far have been:

1. Using one person’s body as a landscape, develop a scene using toy cars. Consider revealing and concealing the vehicle and how the cars might impact the ‘landscape’.
2. Create an awkward conversation between two people in a car (these are being performed alongside the toy cars in the above sequences, the speaker’s car being highlighted with a torch).
3. Write for 2 minutes using sentence starters – Dear Diary…, I can’t wait to drive because…
4. Write a description of a key. Then imagine that description is applied to a person. Embody that ‘person’ and create a character.
5. Come up with 6 ways to use a photo frame. There are many more.

The next challenge is for the students to decide what to keep and what to throw away, what connects and what doesn’t, with the teacher guiding the students along the way.

Theatre Making (devising) is a huge area of work in the Australian Theatrical landscape and the skills gained by engaging in these sorts of activities are cerebral, physical and social. It encourages lateral thinking, collaborative practice, analytical thought, problem solving, spatial/physical awareness and the use of multi-literacies. It is exciting to be working with the students in this way and observing their brilliant ideas.

William Chau, Jennifer Moon, Abby Smyth and Ethan Elix.
WELCOME
Welcome to Astrid Pill to the faculty and Year 8-10 Drama classes. Astrid studied Drama and English before working as a theatre maker and performer for 18 years.
She worked with most companies in Adelaide, particularly Patch Theatre Company and Restless Dance Theatre. She also worked as an independent artist creating work which toured nationally and internationally. Astrid worked in community arts, running workshops in schools, Uni’s, regional communities and work places. Teaching was a logical next step and Astrid completed her Masters in Teaching last year. She is excited to begin her teaching career in such a fantastic school.

DRAMA SHOWS
Next term in Week 4 Wednesday 21st May to Friday 23rd May, 7.30-9.30 the first of the two Year 12 Drama productions begins with Mr Eustice’s class presenting a fresh look at Shakespeare’s Twelfth Night.
In Week 6 on Wednesday 4th June and Thursday 5th June the Year 11’s present their shows; two for the price of one. Mr Kilvert’s class is looking at storytelling using the Nutcracker as its central focus and Mr Eustice revisits the Everyman tale.
In Week 9 Anderson Secondary students from Singapore are visiting the school for the week and join forces with our Year 10 classes to present a production examining migration.

JAPANESE EXCURSION,
YEARS 8-12
The Wind Rises, the last animation by famous director Hayao Miyazaki was viewed by approximately 75 students of Japanese in Years 8-12.
Our students attended the Palace Nova on Wednesday March 12th to view the famous anime in Japanese, considered to be Miyazaki’s final masterpiece. It was a romantic, sad, inspiring film, which also depicted significant historical events. Students enjoyed the movie, with many reporting that they could understand much more language than they had anticipated!

Our big thanks to the nearly 60 people who came to our movie night ‘Noah’ at the Regal Theatre on 29 March – a great turnout considering we clashed with the ‘Showdown’!

We all enjoyed a delicious cheese platter with goodies from ‘Say Cheese’ at the Central Market, and Coobara wines, followed by a fun raffle with heaps of prizes donated by local businesses.

Our sincere thanks goes to the following businesses for their generosity and support for our school:

- The Regal Theatre, Kensington Park
- Marryatville Shopping Centre: Chemmart; Flowers by Destination; Churchills Butchery; and Woolworths
- Coobara Wines; Lion Nathan; Wakefield Press; Fox Gordon wines; Be Unique, Nutrimetics
- Jakob Brunnbauer

A big thank you to all the helpers from Parents and Friends who assisted on the night.

Quiz Night

JOASH PAK – CHRISTIAN PASTORAL SUPPORT WORKER

My role is to support the school community, including students, staff and parents for 12 hours a week.

In Term 1, I have been helping out in different events. I have been involved in events such as Year 8 Splash Carnival, Year 8 Parents BBQ night, Sports Day and Grandparents Day. Each of those events has been blessed with fantastic weather along with great community.

I have been doing various class visits to introduce myself to students and to let students know that I am present in the school community to support them primarily with wellbeing but also may be able to help them or refer them on to the appropriate people and services. I have also been involved in the Christian Group during Monday lunch times and participated in the monthly Marryatville High School Gardening Group.

5MBS RADIOTHON

On Sunday March 23rd some of our jazz ensemble participated in the 5MBS Radiothon which was broadcast live on the radio and internet.

The Radiothon was run as a fundraising event for the community radio station that operates through grants, sponsorships and volunteer work.

Big Band 1 and 2 began the show with the repertoire they are preparing for the Generations in Jazz competition in Mt Gambier. They also played some extra charts. Following the Big Bands were Full Stop who played a variety of charts including Sidney Miller’s own composition, and then a combo of senior and former students called David Goodwin and Friends.

The event was a great success.

IMS FLUTE PLAYERS’ DAY

On March 25th flute students from all over the State came to the Music Centre to participate in the IMS Flute Players’ Day: A fun day of flute playing and fantastic flute demonstrations.

Shaun Barlow was the features player. He is a flautist working in New York and Sydney giving amazing beatbox performances and workshops. Another feature of the day was the combined flute ensemble featuring all of the day’s participants. This session offered the opportunity to play piccolo, alto or bass flute along with the standard flute. During the day various school flute ensembles performed short pieces. We thank Alan Aungles for providing Marryatville High School’s students with the opportunity to participate in this event.

CHORAL CONCERTS
On Monday April 7th the Music Centre presented two choral concerts.

The first was a concert in The Forge. Students from Marryatville Primary School and visitors from the Burnside community were entertained by four choirs. Swing Tones, directed by Jasmin Feneley, and accompanied by Jason Hammond; Cannons, a 5 voiced a cappella group directed by Year 12 student Lily Coats; The Boys’ Choir directed by Aldis Sils; and the Junior Choir directed by Jasmine Lim and accompanied by Joel Ang.

The announcers for the concert were Phuong-Nhi Bahn and Jack Overall. The second and main concert was in the evening at Pilgrim Church on Flinders Street.

The evening began with Senior Choir (students from Year 11 and 12 Musicianship and Year 10 Special Music). They sang “O-Re-Mi”, a Nigerian ‘high-life’ song conducted by Aldis Sils and accompanied by a small group of percussionists.

The second work was “Tungaree” by Australian Stephen Leek. Next on stage were the Junior Choir directed by Jasmine Lim and accompanied by Joel Ang. They performed “Ain’ She Sweet” and Jasmine’s own composition “Eternal Light”. Next the Cannons sang “Next To You” popularised by the contemporary a cappella group Pentatonix. This self-directed group of students have done very well.

Next were the Chamber Choir who sang “Ave Verum Corpus” by Canadian-Latvian composer Imants Ramins, and “Ezekiel Saw the Wheel”, a traditional spiritual arranged by Moses Hogan. Their director was Leonie Hempton.

The Boys’ Choir has grown in strength this year to a whopping 34 singers. They sang “The Prayer of the Children” by Kurt Bestor. This moving work is about the innocent children victims of the recent Balkan conflict. This was followed by “Sounds of Silence” by Simon and Garfunkel. The choir was accompanied on guitar by Albie Wilmore and Arthur Craig.

The Girls’ Choir was directed by Leonie Hempton and they sang “Donna Donna” a Yiddish folksong, accompanied on piano by Jason Hammond.

Next, the Concert Choir surrounded the audience and sang “Eatman’s Welcome”, as heard in the opening of the Disney animated feature “Frozen”. The song by Norwegian Frode Fjellheim echoes the “Yoik” songs of the Sami people of northern Scandinavia. This song was followed by “Danny Boy” and “The Blue Bird” featuring Naomi Belet as soloist. The Concert Choir was directed by Aldis Sils.

The Swing Tones then sang two songs “My Funny Valentine” and “Hide Away With Me”. Directed by Jasmin Feneley, they were accompanied on piano by Jason Hammond. The Pops Vocal Ensemble ended the evening with two songs “Round Midnight” and “Gota’s Girl”. The last song is a composition by former Special Music student and member of The Idea of North, Naomi Crellin. Pops Vocal is directed by Jason Hammond.
